Special Notices

The regular meetings of the Conference will be held in the Board Room, eighth floor, Ford Building. They are not open to the general public. Written questions on topics not on the program may be handed to the presiding officer at any session for answer the following day.

The Secretaries and Treasurer will be in their offices each day. Definite appointments should be made if interviews are desired.

Inquiries regarding shipment of goods should be made at the Treasurer's office.

Those desiring to make purchases in Boston may secure from Mr. Barnes, Vice-Treasurer, a card which will entitle them to special discount.

Each missionary should leave with the Treasurer instructions regarding insurance, payment of subscriptions to periodicals, and other items of personal business to which attention should be given during absence from the United States.

Each missionary should leave at the File Room the following: 1. Names and addresses of relatives and friends to whom special communications may be sent as occasion may arise. 2. A portrait.

A group photograph of all the newly appointed missionaries will be taken at Chickering's, 21 West Street, Friday afternoon, June 20, at 2 o'clock. The size will be eleven by fourteen inches, and orders for the same, at $1.00 each, may be left with the Literature Department, Room 800.

All the missionaries, both newly appointed and returning, are expected to be present at the evening farewell service. It is desired that the wives of all our missionaries, as well as the appointees of the Woman's Societies, shall attend and participate in the afternoon meeting held the same day.

The offices of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, the Baptist Forward Movement for Missionary Education, the New England Baptist Library and Missions are on the seventh floor of the Ford Building.

The office of the New England District Secretary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, American Baptist Home Mission Society and American Baptist Publication Society are in Room 615, on the sixth floor of the Ford Building.

The Boston Branch salesroom of the American Baptist Publication Society is located at 16 Ashburton Place, directly opposite the entrance to the Ford Building.

On the fifth floor of Tremont Temple may be found the rooms of the Massachusetts Baptist Missionary Society and the editorial rooms of The Watchman.

The Ford Building is the home of the Boston Baptist Social Union, and was built by funds left by the late Daniel S. Ford. All parts of the building may be inspected, if desired. A fine view may be had from the roof.
